Location

Farringdon is one of central London's most exciting districts, with a strong mix of office and creative space alongside a world class Food and Beverage offering and a vibrant nightlife.

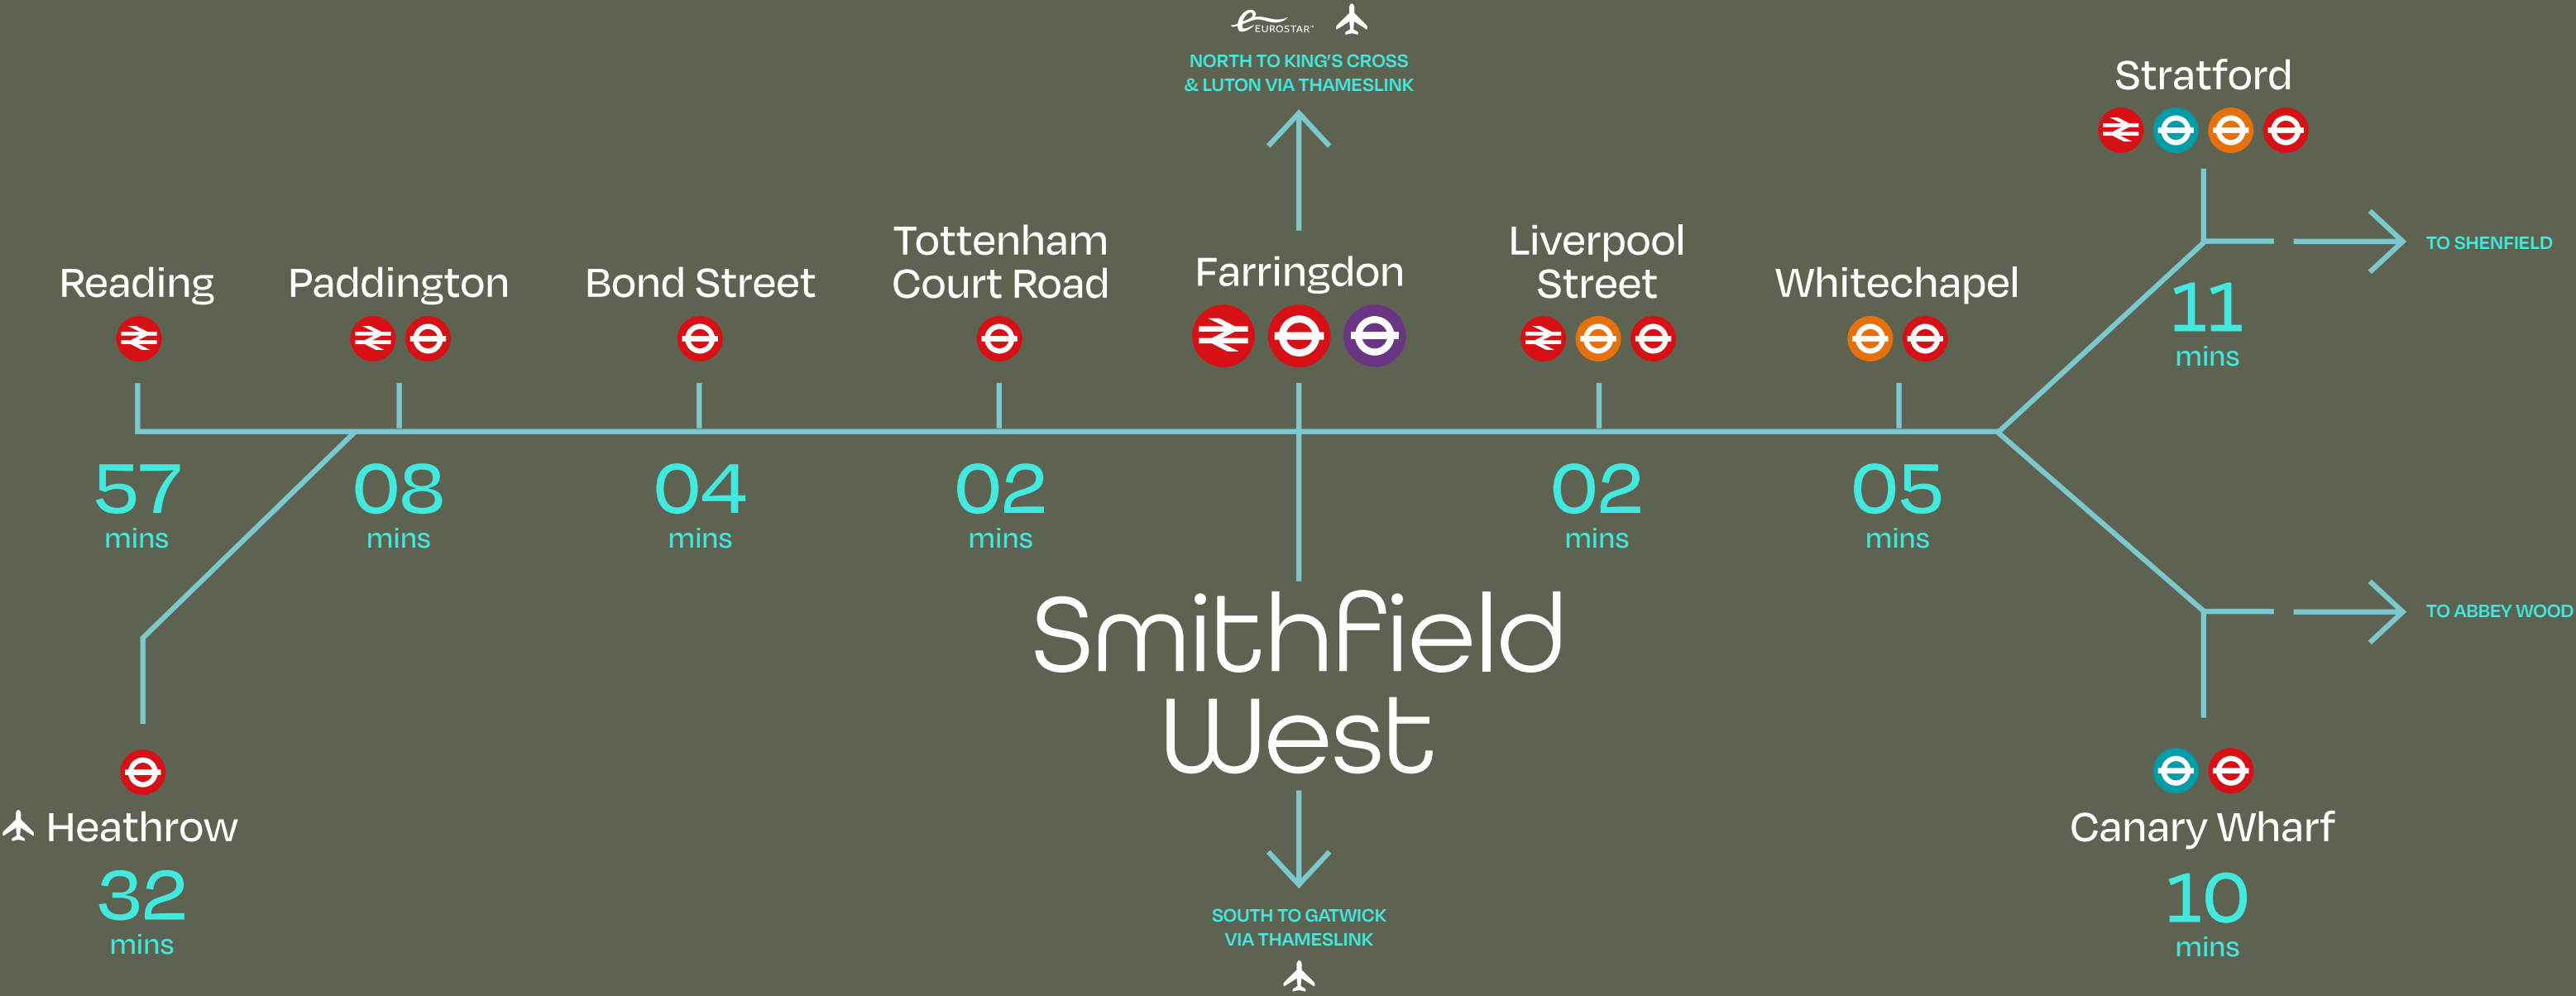

The location is set to be cemented as a go to destination in London with the relocation of the London Museum to part of the Smithfield Market, due to open in 2026. The Museum will host more than 7.5m item collection displayed, centred around London and its history.

Connectivity

With the opening of the Elizabeth Line in 2022, Farringdon Station has become one of the TFL's busiest stations with easy connections to The West End, Paddington, Stratford and Heathrow.
