a broad offering

Reading is widely known as the 'capital of the Thames Valley' and is one of the most important commercial and commuter locations outside London.

The town is the focal point for economic growth along the M4 motorway and is classed as one of the most vibrant urban centres in the UK. It has a growing, skilled and affluent workforce.

90–93 Broad Street is located in the vibrant heart of the town centre. It sits amid independent shops and two indoor shopping centres, which offer a whole host of fashion and lifestyle brands, as well as food, drink and leisure facilities.

well connected

Reading's strategic location, in the heart of the UK's transport network and its proximity to Heathrow and London, is one of its major attractions.

Reading railway station (5 minute walk away) is one of the busiest rail hubs in Britain, connecting to London (Paddington and Waterloo) to the east, Birmingham to the north and Cardiff to the west. Trains to London Paddington run every 10 minutes with a quickest journey time of 26 minutes. The Elizabeth Line offers direct connections to the West End, the City and Canary Wharf.
